Trip Planning Fee Rates

The Trip Planning Fee must be paid in full before any research is conducted or quotes are provided. This fee plays an essential role in ensuring that I can dedicate the necessary time and resources to prioritize your trip, whether it's a vacation, wedding, or group event.

Please keep in mind that the Trip Planning Fee is non-refundable, as it compensates me for the comprehensive research and effort put into planning your unique experience. Even in the unfortunate event of trip cancellation, the Trip Planning Fee will remain non-refundable.
